ONCE UPON A TIME:

It was on July 15, 1966 that this insanity called A. Droite i. Gauce (ADAG) started; issue #1 was a one page item listing the start of a new game, the first ever for ADAG, amongst the players were Rod Walker, Conrad VonMetzke, Margeret Gemignani, Issues 2¢-1/4 were legal size paper (all memo) and I still have problems to this day folding them into the book. In those days I had many ideas of what I wanted ADAG to be, but they never got a chance to be formulated, since like a dimwit I picked up the first time four games from Costaguana and then three more and started three of my own. And at one time I was running 17 games, I then got the Orphan bug and managed to pick up 36 total games plus 3¢ of my own. I have had roughly around 360 players, some of the great ones of Diplomacy Past and Present, I have always and still do maintain that the Purpose of a Diplomacy magazine was for the players benefit, because without the paying customer there would be a use for Postal Diplomacy. To those of you who demand much more than a zine that prints games, forget it, I don't print articles, I see no value in them, to me it is just a waste of time and space, so I left that all to those who were more adapted to doing so, I just run games, and I don't apologize to nobody for that, I am proud that in my twelve (12) years, I have contributed something to Postal Diplomacy. There is only one other magazine (Graustark-John Boardman) that has been in existant longer and has run more games than ADAG, and nobody can come out to ADAG for rescuing Orphan Games. I will be the first to admit that I am not perfect, I can screw up more words, orders and rules not than anybody. But nobody's perfect. But one thing I can always say is that no matter what I will get my issues out, I may be a little late, but have no worry I'll make it. Well what started out as a run down on the history of ADAG wound up to self-pityic ego trip, so I will cut this bullshit now and get onto the games.
